ON LOCATION AT THE Desert Hospital, "The Charlie Farrell Show" filming started Monday in the Village. The production will be the summer replacement on television of the "I Love Lucy" show and will be shown over Channel 2 for the first time on July 2. In the above scene, Charles Farrell, Charles

Eisenhower Urges Speed on Atom Plan

Urges Congress To Vote $112 Million For Nuclear Study

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower asked Congress today for a stepped-up nuclear energy program for both peaceful uses and weapons.

The President specifically asked Congress to authorize a program to cost $112,500,000 during fiscal 1957, which starts July 1.

The White House, in announcing a request for supplemental funds for the Atomic Energy Commission, said some of the money would be used on "design, development, testing and production of weapons and the development of military propulsion reactors."

HE SAID FUNDS also are being sought for plant acquisition and construction needed to provide additional facilities for the expanded military and civilian reactor program.

The money is required so the United States can take advantage of the "recent technological advances in the military part of the program," Hagerty added.

Hagerty was asked if there was any "special reason" for the stepped-up program. He would only say that it is being put forward to take advantage of recent technological advances in the military part of the program.

Observers speculated that this could mean the recent tests in the Pacific.

WALTER P. REUTHER, AFL-CIO vice president and head of the United Auto Workers, urged the House - Senate Atomic Energy Committee to approve a bill authorizing construction of six nuclear power reactors to demonstrate the practical value of atomic power for industry.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), is opposed by Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Reuther said the U.S. program is "shockingly inadequate" in comparison to Russian and British efforts in the atomic power field. He sharply criticized Strauss for what he called the AEC chairman's "complacent" attitude.

FEMALE POPULATION OF VILLAGE NOW OUTNUMBERS MALES BY 600

The female population of Palm Springs outnumbers the male by about 600; average age of permanent residents is 44.8; there were 4,484 occupied dwelling units on February 16, with an average of 2.48 persons per dwelling unit.

These facts and others were received by the City of Palm Springs today in the final report released by the Bureau of the Census, and data included was requested along with the regular count which established that the permanent population is 12,225.

The total figure represents an increase of 1,844 or 17.8 per cent over the 10,381 inhabitants on March 5, 1953, and an increase of 4,565 or 53.6 per cent over the 7,660 inhabitants on April 1, 1950.

Of the 12,225, there are 11,114 living in dwelling units, which exclude persons living in places such as institutions, rooming houses and hotels.

POPULATION by color and sex was divided as follows: Total, 12,225; male, 5,202; female, 7,023.

Florida Vote May Effect State Primary

See Influence Of Bandwagon Ballots Here On June 5

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver battle today for Florida's Democratic convention delegation and the "bandwagon" influence the vote could have on next week's California primary.

Florida has only 28 convention votes, and either candidate could lose those and still win the Democratic nomination.

But in California's balloting a week from today, a whopping 68 convention votes are involved and sufficient prestige that the candidate losing it could easily lose the nomination.

THE FLORIDA PRIMARY provides the only expression of southern sentiment between Stevenson and Kefauver in a statewide popularity vote. Florida, because of a heavy influx of northern immigrants, is not a typical deep south state, however. It voted Republican in 1952.

Primaries also were being held today in Kentucky and Alabama. Alabama Democrats were choosing an additional 11 convention delegates in a primary runoff. They chose 41 in an earlier vote, of which 31 unofficially support Stevenson and 10 are uncommitted. Alabama delegates will share 26 convention votes.

THE PRESIDENTIAL contest was not involved in Kentucky's primary. The main battles there centered on Democratic and Republican nominations for the Senate seat now held by Democratic Sen. Earle C. Clements.

In the Republican primary in Kentucky, former congressman and Assistant Secretary of State Thurston B. Morton, with President Eisenhower's blessing, was seeking the Republican nomination against Julian H. Golden, former solicitor for the National Parks Service.

Moscow Reveals Four Executed

MOSCOW — The Soviet Union disclosed today it has executed four Communist leaders in Azerbaijan, including the former premier of that Soviet republic which borders on Iran.

They were charged with being accomplices of former Soviet Secret Police Chief Lavrenti P. Beria, who was executed following the death of the late Josef Stalin in 1953.

Harry Oliver, Lord Renew Pact After 10 Years

Harry Oliver has kept his bargain, according to an article appearing in the Publishers' Auxiliary, which tells about the tenth anniversary of his Desert Rat Scrapbook.

Readers of his publication years ago will remember this his agreement made with the Lord, which he entitled "Your Editor's Prayer." Reprinted in the Auxiliary, it read:

"The Lord to do: You're to keep me from making this paper a monthly, or adding more pages to it. You're to keep me from getting ambitious. I don't want to make money. I want to make these five pages better reading. You're to help me remember, the flattering mail comes because of your colorful Desert, not because of what I write about it."

"Me to do: I will keep people interested in the plants, animals and the beauty of your Desert. I will say nice things about the folks that love the Desert and just not talk at all about those that don't understand it. I will be the best gold-dern publicity agent for your Desert you ever had."

And, today, as Harry started working on the second 10 years of his publication (besides his column in The Daily Desert Sun), he renewed his agreement with the Lord.

Strong Wind Causes Trouble on Highway, Misses Palm Springs

A strong wind, which would register on the Beaufort scale as between 10 and 11 in intensity, whipped across the northern part of the Coachella Valley Saturday night and most of Sunday closing Highway 60-70-99, cutting off electrical power, turning over trailers and smashing windows.

The wind intensity, known as a "whole gale," registered between 55 and 75 miles per hour, and carried sand and rocks across the desert. Highway 60-70-99 was closed at 1:26 at the Highway 111 cut-off to Indio, and trucks and other traffic was routed through Palm Springs.

The California Electric Power company reported the melting of main line switches caused by the cross-currents of air hitting the connectors and whipping them together. Power was off in the north end of Palm Springs for 48 minutes, and power on the TV cable was on and off for a period of three hours. Local radio stations were off the air for a while.

A house trailer was turned over on Yorba road near Indian Avenue, and another on north Highway 111. A driver with a trailer attempted to turn around on Highway 111, and rocks a half inch in diameter smashed the rear car window. The driver, in having his front windows rolled down to see to make the turn, caused the creation

Opening of Joshua Tree to Mining to be Requested

Desert Chapter, Western Mining Council, will consider adoption of a resolution at its June 12 meeting in Indian city hall which will urge Gov. Goodwin J. Knight to employ "official influence" in securing a survey in the Joshua Tree National Monument to determine the mineral wealth there.

The meeting date was changed from June 5 to 8 p.m. the following Tuesday because of the primary election.

The survey is expected to prove the value of opening the area to mining and prospecting.

Graduation Exercises at Palm Valley Follow Tradition of Previous Years

Graduation exercises at Palm Valley School followed tradition established in previous years, and were extremely simple and informal. Grouped along one side of the lighted swimming pool were the students of the graduating classes of the sixth, eighth and twelfth grades; facing them on the other side were the parents and friends of the school.

Flood lights illuminated the rows of flowers and palms which line the buildings. The speaker's table was banked with white oleander boughs.

The exercises were opened with the invocation by the Rev. William A. Blonden, Jr., of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church. Official welcome to parents and friends was given by Rebecca McGrew, representing the eighth grade, and Rosemary Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Harrison Heath, Jr., of Blue Skies Trailer Village, gave the valedictory address, and Noel Birns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Birns, the salutatory address.

Henry Greeley, principal of Palm Springs High School, was the guest speaker.

CHORAL SELECTIONS were offered during the program by the three choirs, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomlinson. The Junior Choir consisted of students of the 5th and 6th grades; The Junior High Choir, was composed of students of the 10th, 11th and 12th grades, assisted by several members of the faculty.

Palm Springs Lions Club presented its award in citizenship to Rosemary Heath of the 12th grade and to Rebecca McGrew of the 8th grade.

J. Blake Field, director of the school, presented awards to the following students: Scholarship for Senior High School to Alice Ann Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Webb of Palm Springs, and Gail McGrew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Brownell McGrew, Cathedral City.

The Junior High School scholastic award went to Shonagh Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Robert Smith of Rancho Mirage. Fifth and Sixth scholastic award was presented to Jill McGrew.

ROSEMARY HEATH won the Achievement Award offered by Homer Hilton, and David Lasley, son of Mrs. Charles Yates of Palm Desert, was given the Progress Award presented by Mrs. Pearl McCallum McManus. A second award for progress was given to Kathleen De Santis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre J. De Santis of Palm Springs.

The Constitution Award for the best presentation of the United States Constitution was won jointly by Travis Rogers, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Rogers of Palm Springs, and by Rebecca McGrew.

The Citizenship Award for the sixth grade was won by Gregory Gazda, son of Dr. and Mrs. Mace Gazda of Palm Springs.

The exercises were closed with the benediction by the Rev. Blonden.

During the informal reception which followed, work done by the younger students during the year was on display in the assembly hall.

Foot Shift

CARMI, Ill. (AP)—File this advice away for use next winter: Don Stallings showed up one late winter day walking carefully over icy walks, wearing his rubber boots reversed—right boot on left foot and vice versa. Stallings told puzzled friends someone told him he would be less likely to slip if he wore them that way.

Village Included in Resort Areas for Vacationers' Rain Insurance

Palm Springs has been included among the 100 popular resort areas throughout the nation where vacationers may be covered against excessive rain under a new Vacation Rain Insurance policy, marketed this month for the first time in the United States by one of country's leading property-casualty insurance companies.

Long popular in Europe, this unique policy is designed to protect a vacationer's holiday investment that is spoiled by excessive or abnormal rain, according to officials of Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, the 94-year-old firm which is introducing Vacation Rain Insurance to the American public.

The new policy may be purchased to cover vacation expenses of 100, $200 or $300 a week for 14, 21 or 28 days. Cost for this rain insurance is 5 per cent of the total amount of coverage the vacationer buys. This protection is available to anyone vacationing here during the period of November 1 to April 30.

Automatic payments are mailed to any policyholder when excessive rain, as measured by the local U.S. Weather Bureau station, falls more than a specified number of days during the vacation period. Locally, excessive rain is listed as any precipitation over .05 inch per day.

Michigan, the number one salt producer in the United States, has a supply which one geologist estimated at 71 trillion tons.

For instance, under a 14 day policy for $100 a week, a vacationer would collect $20 for five days of excessive rain and the full $200 for 10 or more days. The 21-day contract would pay $30 after seven days of abnormal rain under a $100 a week policy and the total $200 after 13 days. Payments for the 28 day policy, at $300 a week, range from $120 on the ninth day to the full policy amount of $600 after 16 or more days excessive rain.

Youthful Driver Education

Young people are very good drivers. There are several good reasons why. In the first place they have been brought up in automobiles; driving is almost second nature to them. Most of them even understand the mechanics of cars. They are more mentally alert than older people, and so, respond quicker to any emergency. Then too, many schools (including Palm Springs High School) have instruction in driving.

Young people for the most part, are also reasonably careful drivers. But there are two groups among them who constitute a traffic hazard and should be dealt with severely by the traffic courts. They are the show-offs, and the hotrod drivers who race on the public highways. These few give older people the idea that all young people are reckless drivers — which they are not. They also create a serious problem for the judges who do not like to send young boys to jail.

Confronted with the problem of passing judgment on two North Carolina youths who were convicted of racing at 90 miles an hour, Judge John H. Vernon pondered over the situation for almost three weeks. He recalled that fines are usually paid by parents of the offenders and that, as a result, many youths who make a habit of speeding, racing and showing-off on the streets and highways have come to think that punishment usually means little more than a lecture, suspended sentence and a fine — which is usually paid by their fathers. Here's the interesting solution Judge Vernon worked out. He imposed these conditions on a 60-day suspended sentence:

Each boy was to pay a $100 fine — in 100 weekly installments! Each is to report to the probation officer every week for TWO YEARS, during which time they are prohibited from driving.

Even if they do get the dollar from Dad, these boys are going to get mighty sick of making all those calls at the county court house. Their friends will have something to think about also. This is the sort of punishment that will make these — and other youths of the locality — understand that they must obey the laws like everybody else and not endanger the lives of others even though they are willing to risk their own.

While paying fines on the installment plan is not new, this application of it in the punishment of youthful drivers who violate the laws might as well be followed in other places where the problem has become critical. This would fit in very well with the program of driver education of young people.

While youths are taught how to operate a car — and how to drive it safely — must be made to understand at the time that the laws governing the operation of an automobile must be obeyed or serious punishment — including suspension of the RIGHT TO DRIVE — will result.

Local Government

Coupeville Courier, Coupeville, Wisc.)

One of our primary editorial policies will be to create an interest in local government. This purpose is founded on the fundamental belief that a true and working democratic federal government is based on strong small units of democratic self-government such as is found in small cities and towns. We believe that strong democracies at the very core of our life will protect us from dictatorial tendencies of government on higher levels.

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

WASHINGTON — Those two globe-trotting Kremlin czars are eyeing this side of the Atlantic. They are putting out feelers about coming to Canada.

It's being proposed that Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Khrushchev be invited to make an official visit to the Commonwealth, as they recently did to Britain.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent has done nothing about the matter. Moscow has been informed he is "considering it."

The Reds' strategy, in proposing to tour Canada, is obvious. Their real objective is not the Commonwealth. It is merely the means to far greater ends.

The Russians' actual propaganda "targets" are the U.S. and Latin America.

A Bulganin-Khrushchev trip to Canada is deemed certain to be extensively covered by the U.S. press, radio and TV, which in turn would transmit reports to Latin America. Thus the two Soviet rulers would, in effect, be making a tour of the entire American continent.

Further, they would be doing that without taking any undue personal risks, added fatigue, and with the opportunity to wheedle for invitations to the U.S. and elsewhere.

The Reds are making no secret about courting Latin America. At the latest Kremlin diplomatic reception, Khrushchev went out of his way to be cordial to South Americans. To the Ambassador of Argentina, with whom the Soviet is negotiating a big trade deal, Khrushchev expressed the enthusiastic hope of visiting that country "soon."

A significant straw of what is in the wind along this line occurred in Uruguay last week. The Uruguayan Chamber of Deputies accepted a Russian invitation to send a delegation there for an extended visit. Similar invitations have been made to a number of other Latin American countries.

NOTE: Senator Walter George

has suggested to President Eisenhower that he consider doing some good-will traveling. The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee proposed that during a talk with the President and Secretary Dulles, the State Department head, commenting on the junketing of Bulganin and Khrushchev, said a study showed that the two Kremlin rulers have spent 28 per cent of their time abroad since 1953. Senator George expressed the view that a trip by the President would prove very effective, if he can spare the time and his doctors permit it. The president replied he did not think his physicians would object.

WHAT'S BEHIND IT—A key reason for that backstage wrangling among the military services is an unannounced crack-down by Defense Secretary Wilson on their duplication of "push-button" weapons.

Wilson insisted the services agree among themselves on which was to develop what. When they dragged their feet, he stepped in and decided for them. It was this forceful action that caused the public explosion. Certain Army and Air Force officers resented Wilson's blunt ruling, and "leaked" critical blasts to newsmen.

That's the inside report Frank Newbury, Assistant Defense Secretary for engineering, gave a group of senators at a private meeting. They questioned him about the Pentagon row and he gave this explanation.

Following are highlights of Newbury's revealing comments: "A comprehensive study of air-to-air and ground-to-air missiles programs of the three services showed a large number of duplications. . . . It was established that numerous guns, rockets and guided missiles were being developed for the same missions and classes of aircraft and would be ready for service at about the same time. As a result of this study, Secretary Wilson ordered reductions in the number, kinds and sizes of various of these weapons. Other possible eliminations are now being carried out. "This study caused controversy among the services. For example: The Air Force and Navy have agreed to use a certain air-to-air rocket which they were separately developing. Also, a new 1,000 pound thrust JATO unit by the Navy was eliminated when it was shown that would duplicate an existing Air Force unit. Again, the three services are now basing 30 m.m. gun developments on a single 30 m.m. ammunition round. They weren't doing that before.

"Both the Army and Marine Corps requested field artillery mechanical computers. The Army was directed to discontinue development of its computer and to coordinate with the Marine Corps. The Army also had projects for the development of three different weapons to be used in infantry anti-tank roles. The Army was ordered to consolidate them into one project, despite vigorous protests."

NOTE: The Navy owns six horses. That's what the Defense Department has reported to Congress. According to this accounting, the military services have a total of 167 horses, of which six belong to the Navy, 37 to the Marine Corps and 124 to the Army. The Army also has 314 mules.

POLITICALS — Attorney General Herbert Brownell is telling friends the Republican National Committee is basing its campaign planning on the theory that the Democratic presidential candidate will be either Adlai Stevenson or Senator Stuart Symington. . . . Governor Averell Harriman during his recent Western electioneering tour that is backfiring. Southern leaders in Congress are miffed over authoritative reports that the New Yorker said the Democrats can win without the South, and that the South won't bolt the Chicago convention even if a strong civil rights plank is written into the Democratic platform.

'Hope It's Still Warm in November'

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

It looked Sunday afternoon, like the busiest day in the heart of the busiest season as traffic gunned up Palm Canyon Drive.

Plus a near-record influx of weekend visitors, traffic was augmented by the gale which swept the northern end of the valley. It forced the temporary closing of Highway 99 from Palm Springs Junction to Indio and sent all of the traffic from that thoroughfare through the Village via 111.

IN ADDITION to all of the holiday traffic here plus the holiday traffic which ordinarily would have taken Highway 99, Palm Canyon Drive also had more than its quota of big trucks, box cars on the highways, which really helped to snarl traffic.

Which causes me to think—in events like this when traffic is routed over Highway 111 instead of Highway 99 on a Sunday or a holiday, truck traffic should be diverted up Indian Avenue. That's four lanes between Tachevah and the Y at the south end of the business district. That would help relieve the congestion on the Drive.

THE PALM SPRINGS area already has plenty of name golf tournaments. All of the regular club events at Thunderbird, Tamarisk and O'Donnell's coupled with many special events such as the recent Ryder's Cup, PGA Open and others.

But we will probably have another big one next year. According to what I hear Bob Hope, a home owner here, is working on a tournament to exceed all other tournaments.

It will be staged here and understand all that is delaying the announcement of dates is official sanction.

PERCY WHITESIDE of The Villager, showed up at the Jacqueline Cochran press party at Desert Air Hotel Sunday in that famous red attire of his. Red shirt, red slacks et al.

And driving that brilliant red Thunderbird.

Some one asked him whether he bought the outfit to match the car.

He said that it was the other way around. He had the outfit first.

And that he didn't pick out the car to match the outfit, either. It was the only color available at the time he bought the car.

TREASON, IS WHAT this amounts to. But a resident of Palm Springs told me the other day that he used to prefer the ocean to the desert.

He liked the sound of the surf and the constant motion of the waves. His wife liked the desert so he came here.

Then they moved north of town into the path of the winds out of the Pass. Now he likes the desert.

"It has what the ocean has," he said. "Sound of the wind (in the trees) and the sand is constantly moving."

EDITOR'S NOTE — This guy doesn't live in Palm Springs but in the desert area far out of town.)

Snake Bites

This is the time of the year when the snakes begin to wend their way around the desert seeking the cool spots and water during the day, and the warm spots in the coolness of the night. Usually they are found amongst areas of irregularly piled rocks or some undergrowth of brush, but driving along the road at night they may be seen crossing from one area to another. Many are destroyed under the wheels of the cars.

Of the snakes we see in this desert region they may be classified as the rattlesnake, sidewinder which is also a rattlesnake, coral snake, a king snake, gopher and garter snakes. The rattlesnake is usually about 18 to 24 inches in length although it may be somewhat longer. It, along with the sidewinder, has a sand color and markings which are not too distinct. It is usually coiled, raising its head slightly to strike when disturbed, and usually has a double fang. Rattles are found on its tail end, and vary in number from one or two, to as many as 10 or 12 in the older snakes.

The sidewinder belongs to the rattlesnake family, and is also of the same color, and has a peculiar fan motion which gives it its name.

The coral snake is very short, usually 8 to 10 inches in length, and appears to have blunt ends. It receives its name from its color.

THESE THREE ARE the poison snakes in our area. Most of the time when they strike, it is either to the hand, forearm, leg or foot. It is most important to apply a tourniquet to stop the circulation from this area, inasmuch as the poison has a peculiar affinity for certain nerve endings which supply the heart and general circulation, along with the respiratory centers.

The tourniquet, which may be any substance that can be wound tightly about the arm or thigh, closer into the body than the bite, can be rubber, a small piece of rope, heavy cord, the sleeve of a shirt.

One should immediately, having placed a tourniquet on, if they are at home should also apply ice to the area to impede the absorption of the poison, and then seek the services of a physician or pharmacist who will inject anti-venom serum and apply suction to the region where the bite has occurred.

If the one stricken is at some distance from these aids, the tourniquet should be applied and if there is no abrasion or cut about the mouth or lips, one can use suction of the lips, spitting out the venom and blood. Also, one must remember if the tourniquet is allowed on for too great a length of time, it stops circulation and may cause danger to the tissue beyond it, so it should be loosened and tightened at intervals of 15 to 30 minutes until you can reach the doctor.

I have known of individuals on farms, who when bitten by a poisonous snake have taken a live chicken, split it open and as it is warm, place it about the area of the bite, keeping that portion of the body within the warmth of the chicken. It seems that this form of animal life, feeding on earth substances, develops a venom immunity and has the value of an anti-venom serum. This, however, should not be allowed to take the place of an immediate visit to the doctor, the use of suction and the use of manufactured anti-venom serum.

THE GOPHER AND garter snakes are rather colorful, the gopher being from three to four feet in length usually, the garter snake being smaller and also colorful. The king snake, which average three to four feet in length, has peculiar diamond-shaped markings, and is a friend to man inasmuch as he will kill the ordinary rattlesnake and the usual rodent form of life.

There are two smaller forms of life which may be dangerous to humans. These are the small scorpion with blackish markings, two to four inches in length, and the black widow spider.

I have never known of a death to a grown adult from either one of these, but have seen severe swelling and annoyance. However, to infants and very young children, the bite of these latter two may prove fatal.

It might be wise also to remember in the young infantile group, that our lizards on the desert may at times eat poisonous substances and while the remnants of these substances are still in their mouths, if they were to bite an infant, might produce a poisonous reaction.

It behooves us all to watch where we step and walk, even in and about the areas close to our homes.

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

If you go away and come back some other day, say in two years, you won't recognize Palm Springs, especially in June or perhaps in July, because of the crowds that will still be swarming over our town.

All of this was brought to mind because of last weekend and the crowds that swamped this town. Everybody reported business as great as it were Easter Week or the middle of February.

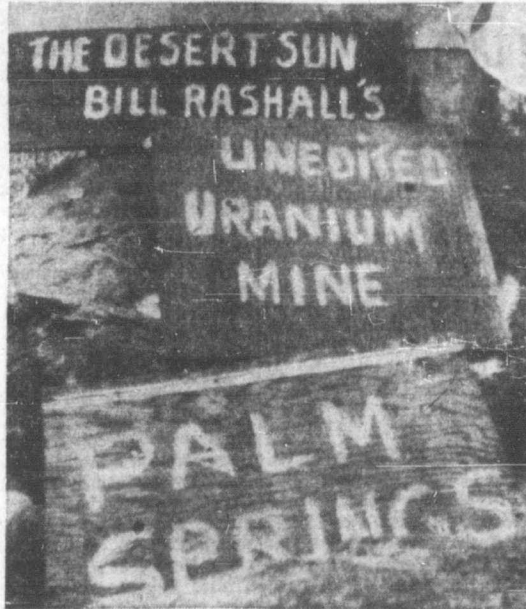

But I'd like to pass this one question on to all of you to answer. Where did the crowds come from? Every night spot and dining room in town was filled to over capacity. Down Desert Air Hotel way John Noyes and his bossman Henry (Hank) Gogerty had prepared for 700 guests at the hotel's annual luau and I heard that when they passed serving the 800th person they were still coming in.

The right of self determination is what Hank is demanding of the county board of supervisors. The right of self determination on the part of residents in Rancho Mirage whether they shall or shall not incorporate. This, apparently, our board of supervisors believes should be a matter of self-determination on their part and their part alone. Why not give these people a chance to vote one way or another? Why, dictatorship like, determine what they shall or shall not have when one segment is screaming against incorporation and another equally as loud in favor of making a sixth class city of Rancho Mirage. And our own representative county supervisor seems to favor one side more than he does the other. All of this can be brought to an end by stopping the argument as to how many people live in Rancho Mirage, 450 or less as the opponents declare or more than 500 claimed by those who favor incorporation, and holding an election.

Meet Cathy Kolt, a beautiful little brunette who originally hailed from England, who will tell you nothing but the nicest things about her employer—beautiful Za Za Gabor. Cathy is Miss Gabor's secretary and she will inform you that her Boss is the sweetest and most understanding employer for whom she has ever worked. "All I have to do is to mention that something or the other should be done," said Cathy, "and a month later Miss Gabor will ask me out of pure remembrance if I had done what I originally suggested. She never forgets anything! In answer to your question, Mr. Rashall, she has only been married three times." Now I know!

Dan Howard came up with a good one through the mails this week. The reproduction immediately below explains his contribution and he claims that if I want a few grams of the stuff plus the location he will come up with that too.

Taking another glance at people who could fill a book about Palm Springs with stories of the past. There is the Foldsey family at the Palm Springs hotel Frank Miller, councilman, and his brother, John. Then there is the man who fathered the idea of the aerial tramway, Francis Crocker and Merrill Crockett and his lovely Juanita. Also Dr. Henry Reid whose son I admire very much by the name of Henry (Harry) Reid Jr. Then Cora Hyde and hubbub, Clarence, ex-mayor of this city, and Earl Hough and the Henderson clan but Charley, the father, is gone to his reward leaving behind wife and mother, Harriett Henderson, and son, Joe, who is giving automobiles away today. He calls them Chevrolets. And more and more to be written in days to come.

Russ Wade came up with this reminder good for the Chamber of Commerce and our City Manager. "That sign at both entrances to Palm Springs reads 'Population 10,381 when it should, according to our last census, read 12,225.'"

Further suggestion is that a sentence be added to the last figure to read: "Year around population!"

EARL WILSON:

Girls, You Want to Act?

NEW YORK — If there are any camels reading this, I trust they won't be offended when I mention that Miss Carroll Baker, the "female Marlon Brando," looks quite uncamelish.

"Imitating some sort of animal helps many actors to do a character," Miss Baker, Ella Kazan's latest discovery, who's from Carpenterstown, Pa., says.

"A woman at the Actors Studio impersonated a squirrel."

"She portrayed a rather eccentric woman secretary who, to her, seemed to be represented by a squirrel."

"For hours she watched a squirrel until she could toss her head and look up to you quite squirrelishly. She was very good and she readily attributed her success to becoming a squirrel."

Miss Baker, getting celebrated after two pictures, "Baby Doll" and "Giant," added:

"I tried unsuccessfully once to be a camel."

To many people, she admitted, the feats of Lee Strasberg—the drama coach who helped Brando, James Dean and Marilyn Monroe—might seem unusual.

One girl was told, "Sing your lines."

"She couldn't release her emotions. I suffered with her when she sang the lines. Strasberg said, 'Louder, LOUDER!'"

"She was crying—but she got it. Everybody burst into applause. She told me, 'I finally broke through the sound barrier'"

Carroll played like a camel while doing a "Stage Door" characterization at the Actors Studio.

"I stood in the zoo for hours watching the camels. But the camel was too slow for this girl I played. I should have picked out a speedier animal, like a deer."

Carroll could perhaps have impersonated a zebra or chipmunk in portraying "Baby Doll" — she plays a young wife who sleeps in a crib to avoid her husband . . . but she used, as a model, an

80-year-old woman

"Why animals?" asked Miss Baker, married now to director Jack Garfin, and once briefly the wife of furrier Lew Rutter. "Some animals are more interesting than humans."

"If you haven't been asked to impersonate an animal or maybe a tree," Miss Baker said, "perhaps this sounds silly, but if you have ever been a tree, you know it isn't."

900 Attend 'Greatest Luau Ever' at Desert Air Hotel

HAWAIIAN SETTING which out-Hawaiied Hawaii in drama and color was the scene that greeted those who were present at the Desert Air luau. The picture above shows just a small portion of the crowd, with the stage in the distant background. In addition to the starring role played by Hilo Hatti, there were outstanding Hawaiian performers including George Kainapau, Freddie Letuli, knife dancer, Na-lan, dancer, Clown Bill Whistling, Thurston Knudson on the drums, and many Tahitian performing dancers. (Desert Sun Photo)

BROUGHT THE "HOUSE" down with their performances, did Hilo Hatti and Henry (Hank) Gogerty at the fourth annual luau staged at the Desert Air Hotel. Hilo first sang two numbers and then she introduced Hank who came out attired as a beachcomber, tattered hat, earrings and raggedy pants. He then went into his "Cockeyed Mayor" act that was simply a riot, coupled with bodily gyrations which brought the huge throngs seated on mats in front of the stage to roaring for more. Hilo Hattie's "Bessie I Ain't Coming Home" caused the crowd to scream with laughter. Approximately 900 persons, the largest throng ever assembled at a desert luau, witnessed the performance of a great cast of performers, dined on roast pig and drank rum punch. (Desert Sun Photo)

Red Carpet Out for Hope Premiere

Stars, Press and Society At Premiere

A riot of sputtering klieg lights, and a crowd of spectators that filled the roped-off section of Palm Canyon Drive in front of the Plaza Theatre, greeted arrivals at the press preview and premiere of Bob Hope's new picture "That Certain Feeling."

Motion picture stars and other celebrities arrived in electric golf carts, were introduced to the crowd by emcee Frank Bogert, and walked over the red carpet into the theatre, where they joined a capacity crowd of theatre-goers.

Among the first to arrive was Groucho Marx, who received a warm welcome from the crowd and was immediately surrounded by young autograph-seekers. Hoagy Carmichael, Sue and Alan Ladd, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, Andrea Leeds Howard, Charlie and Virginia Farrell, and Bob Hope all were greeted enthusiastically. Billie Dove and Bob Kenaston made a quiet entrance under the ropes.

Among the visiting press were Elsa and Ed Schallert, Aline Moseley, Mike Connolly who arrived with Audrey Baer, columnist Bill Kennedy. Producer Melvin Frank was among top studio officials here for the premiere. Dorothy Gray and Harry Joe Brown, Mrs. Charles Becker, Mrs. William B. Malouf and Dorothy's sister Mrs. William Cohen of Denver, arrived together. Mayor and Mrs. Florian Boyd, the Jimmy Coopers, Ray Lusby, Al Hunts, Earl Houghs, Frank Bennetts and Jacqueline Cochran Odium, Lester Seligs, Edwin Silvermans, James Hammonds, S. P. Manasses, Ted Charlsons, Jack Kenastons, George Dulans, Henry Dollards, Charles Mendelsons, Arnold Rumwells, Howard Morrissey, were in the throng.

Also Kitty and Charles Irwin, Jimmy Morton, Buddy and A. R. Simon, the Homer Hiltons, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont San Chez, Mr. and Mrs. Ennis St. Cyr, Mrs. W.

F. Schlothman, the Walter Freunds, Al Roses, Tony Cosentinos, William Francisco, Mrs. Walter Funsinn, Mrs. John Blish, Helen Worth, Adele Colgan, the Maynard Laswells, John McClures, Charles Drivers, Helen and Walter Braun-schweiger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reznick, Anita Haskell Jones, Helen Worth, Johnny Dawsons, Joe Pawlings, Elvirita and Don Bleitz, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Staley, Mr. and Mrs. Toby Curtis, Raymond Cree, the Reuben Fleets, Peg and Norman Waters, Mary Hurrell, Ed McCoubrey, Jerry Louise Cel-leston, Tony Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fara, the Jack Meis-elmans, Bess Bender, Maury Wax, John Connors, and many, many more.

Mayor Florian Boyd introduced Honorary Mayor Bob Hope from the stage before the screening of "That Certain Feeling."

In color and VistaVision, the Paramount film, starring Hope, Eva Marie Saint, George Sanders with Pearl Bailey, received en-thusiastic response from the audi-ence.

Hope's role provides him with punch lines that are Hope at his best, and for the first time he in-duces in romance. The picture is warm, believable, and full of humour. Eva Marie Saint's beau-tiful, Pearl Bailey's songs, the ap-pearance of Al Capp as himself, and wonderful bits like the small boy who called his mother to ask permission to stay for lunch, looked blank, hung up and said "Mama says I've already had lunch," all contribute to what many consider the best Hope pic-ture in years.

Preceding the premiere, the press was entertained at dinner at the Biltmore, and after the show, Paramount hosted a big press party at Chi Chi's midnight show, where Hope again made a brief appearance.

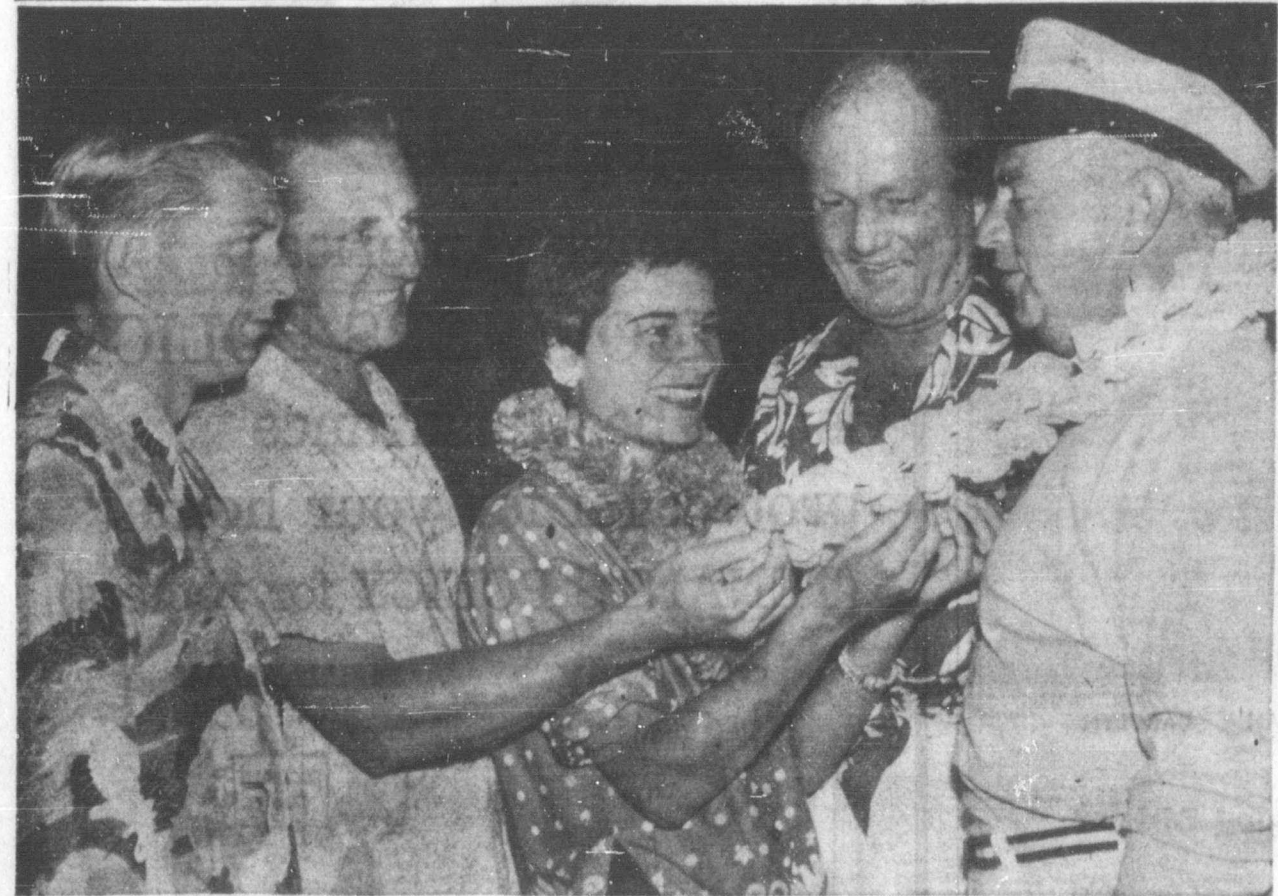

The screening was a benefit for the Desert Hospital Women's Aux-iliary and the Cancer Fund, ar-ranged through Paramount and the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce and all concerned ex-pressed pleasure at the highly successful outcome.

AMONG STELLAR FIGURES at the Bob Hope premiere, were, Sue Ladd, and Miss Head's husband, Wiard Ihnem. (Desert Sun Photo)

with Hildy Crawford

Palm Springs has money in the bank . . . and you, and you, and you can draw on it . . . It's the gold of the sunshine . . . and with a reverse Midas twist . . . it enriches all that it touches . . . There's a golden glow to sun-kissed Palm Springers . . . for the sun shines on us the year around . . . in this mountain-sheltered Village . . . For several years resort wear has been jewelled . . . as gowns and sweaters, handbags and accessories, and even denims glitter with rhinestones . . . This, too, is symbolic of the richness of Palm Springs life . . . reminiscent of the shower of diamonds flashing in the sunlight . . . as swimmers splash in the swimming pools that are so much a part of casual desert life . . . May has been wonderful here . . . and as June draws near . . . we find a goodly percentage of winter residents lingering to enjoy it . . .

The capacity turnout at the Bob Hope premiere, with the roped-off Palm Canyon Drive crowded with spectators . . . The 900 that attended the Desert Air luau . . . The enthusiastic crowd at the Board of Trades Coronation Ball . . . all on Saturday night . . . evidence the well-filled Village . . . and parties, this time of year, continue to amaze . . . You overhear the frequent comment "Why, just everyone is here" . . .

This happened again Sunday night . . . as Estelle and Ed Bacon assembled a large group of friends for their cocktail-buffet . . . at the house they are occupying at 320 Camino Norte . . . There were the Florian Boyds, John Costellos, Fred Ingrams, Franklin B. MacCarthys . . . Helen and Walter Braunschweiger, Ruth Hardy, Virginia Farrell . . . the Harold Murphys (Florence was enchanting us with her tales of their Vienna stay), Edith and Dick Edwards, Maggie and Milt Hicks . . . the John Woods, Dr. and Mrs. William Elliott, Muriel Fulton . . . the Homer Hiltons, Lloyd Simons, Vic and Bud Graves, Muriel Rumwell . . . Vicki Malouf and son Gary, Lillian McClure, Bertine Treat, Ethelyn Hardy . . . Marion and Charles Matthews, Leo Bakers, Sam Sturats, Adrian Rosens, Newton Hotkisses, Arthur Baileys . . . Jimmy Molton, Mary Jane Hicks, Ethel Peake, Mrs. W. F. Schloth . . . and quite a few more . . . From the way Estelle and Ed were talking at the party . . . it seems probable that they may again become Villagers . . .

Arranged and staged in 10 days time . . . the Bob Hope premiere was a tremendous success . . . but there were not as many people in shorts as was anticipated . . . One of the best of the Hope ad libs . . . was when he called Florian Boyd "our under cover Mayor" . . . Hope, who has been honorary Mayor for years, was wearing shorts . . . but Florian wasn't . . . Another goodie was when Hope commented on the picture being in VistaVision . . . He said the screen is getting so big . . . that they had to shoot "Oklahoma" in Texas . . .

Among the visiting press was Jan King, who is production assistant with Bob Hope . . . In the mood of the press preview, Jan was wearing a newspaper print dress . . . but, it was different, it was in blue and white . . . Jan and her mother Mrs. Ruth E. Kruidenier, have bought a house at 1361 El Alameda and are Villagers again . . .

They go to the mid-west on business at Sioux City, Iowa . . . then Jan is off on a European trip . . . She will cross on the United States and fly back around October . . . They expect to spend most of next season here . . . with Jan going in to Los Angeles for the Hope shows . . .

Guests brought picnic suppers in flower-and-ribbon decorated boxes . . . with a prize for the prettiest one . . . when they gathered at Eleanor Kane's San Lorenzo home Friday night . . . for an "end-of-the-season . . . empty-the-bottles" party . . . Eleanor's beautiful garden was a gay scene . . . with music by Harold Tonne, games and dancing to recorded music.

Guests included Captain and Mrs. Duke Bellingham, the Tom Hollands, Mahlon Mansons . . . Ted Charltons, Ralph Shelleys, William Kuehns . . . Effie and Jeano Baillard, Millie Eisenman, Prudence Coleman, Hortense Murray . . . Mabel Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Briggs, and Ralph McClain . . . Eleanor's daughter and her husband Lou (Hyland) and Albert Weingand arrive around June 6 from Honolulu . . . He has resigned his managerial duties at Moana and Surfside Hotel there . . . and they are going to live in Santa Barbara . . . where he and Ronald Coleman own the famous San Ysidro Ranch.

The Weingands and Ely leave late in June to spend the summer in the Rockies . . . visiting Baniff and Lake Louise . . . Kay and Howard Morris hosted a small cocktail party at their Cactus Road home Friday evening . . . preceding the cocktail-buffet for visiting press at Deep Well . . . Among their guests were Dorothy Gray and Harry Joe Brown, Edith and Dick Edwards, Veva and Lester Selig, Velma and Eddie Silverman, Rose Mints . . .

Cabana Party is Farewell for the Harold Smiths

The summer season at Shadow Mountain Club, always marked by numerous informal parties, opened with a Friday night cabana party given by Edith Eddy Ward.

The poolside party, held in front of Mrs. Ward's cabana, was a farewell party for the Harold A. Smiths, winter residents who are leaving soon to return to their home in Winnipeg, Canada. By coincidence, the hostess gave her first cabana party four years ago, to celebrate the purchase of Palm Desert Adobe by the Jim Harstats, daughter and son-in-law of the Smiths.

Among the thirty guests were the Robert Reids of Chicago and Palm Desert Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, also of Chicago and Palm Desert; Clancy Smith, son of the guests of honor; the Edgar Schills of Thunderbird; the Willard Parkers (she is Virginia Fields).

Art and Dottie Todd stopped by the party to sing a farewell song for the Smiths.

A BRIDE IN UNIFORM was Captain Jane Ward, who was married Friday to Holmes D. McCullough. The bridegroom and the groomsmen were in mufti.

Bride Wears Uniform; Groom is in Mufti

Bike Lore

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP) — A 10-seater bicycle? Such a strange contrivance startled pedestrians and horses hereabouts during the Gay Nineties as it whizzed over city streets and rural roads. Charles Metz built the big machine at a cost of more than $1,200. He was one of the 10 men who were first to ride the giant bike.

Palm Desert By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

The Todds, who have been at Shadow Mountain Club, left last weekend. An "Au Revoir" party was given in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker are planning a summer vacation. They leave the first part of June for Grand Canyon and then on east to Boston. Mr. Baker is a retired restaurant and hotel owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Win Andrews who own and operate the Palm Desert Market are building a new supermarket on Highway 111, north of and across from "The Center." Construction started a week ago and they plan to be ready for business by September.

Among the steady stream of out-of-towners who were special guests of the famed Hospitality

House have been: national representatives of the magazine "Practical Builder," James Lange, Executive editor from Chicago, Robert F. Welch, Southern California editor, and Bob Pitt of Los Angeles. They were entertained by Charles Cabana, advertising director of Stanthony Corporation, owners of the streamlined exhibit house, featuring the "Kitchen of Tomorrow."

In writing about the new pastor of the Palm Desert Community Church, an error was made in the spelling of his name—it is Rev. Warren McClain.

Slight Oversight

SOUTH WINDSOR, Conn. (AP) — After electing Richard Rife as its secretary and newest member, the Republican town committee discovered: (1) he's not a Republican; (2) he's not a voter. Said the committee chairman: "He had worked for us for a year and was so much a part of us that the nomination went through without our thinking about it."

Some 20 million of the 57 million passenger car drivers in this country are women.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey will leave soon for Big Bear for the summer months. Dr. Morrey has a large practice there, as there are many children's summer camps located all around the lake.

NEW YORK (AP) — Like Babe Ruth, the late Al Simmons knew a lot of great moments but his baseball career ended in bitter frustration.

They were alike in a lot of ways, these two. Each knew poverty in childhood, won national acclaim because of ability to blast a baseball and walked out on a bitter note.

For Simmons, as did Ruth, dreamed of managing the ball club which made him famous—only to be rejected.

The Babe never forgot the rebuff he received from the New York Yankees. Yet it was even worse for Simmons because "Bucketfoot Al" was so close to realizing his dream of piloting the Philadelphia Athletics.

HIS HOPES BLOSSOMED in 1944, when he returned to the A's as a player-coach under time-marked Connie Mack. This was a dozen years after he and Jimmy Dykes of those fabled three-time champions had been peddled to the Chicago White Sox.

Some said that Al had been promised by Connie that when it came time for the grand old man to step down Simmons would get the job. Certainly Al, in the next four years, made no secret of his ambition.

But even then the Mack dynasty was trembling on its foundations. Gradually the reins were being slipped from the withered fingers of Connie, an ever more forgetful octogenarian, and he had virtually nothing to say when the board of directors met in October of 1949 and summarily fired Simmons. Connie objected but he, too, was being forced out.

INSTEAD OF SIMMONS, the board named Jimmy Dykes as manager, the same Dykes who along with Simmons had been sold to Chicago 16 years earlier.

"Bucketfoot Al" was shocked and he said so. This time, he asserted, he had been sold down the river.

Simmons, the American League batting champion in 1930 and 1931, had proved himself of equally high caliber as a coach on the baselines. So it was no trick to hook on as a coach with the Cleveland Indians for the next season.

But when the A's passed him up for Dykes it had taken the heart and the rest for baseball out of the big man from Milwaukee. He brooded over his rejection and, in the spring of 1951, ailing and heart-sick, he resigned as a Cleveland coach.

"I'm no help either to you or to myself," he told Manager Al Lopez.

ON THAT DISGUSTED NOTE, Al Simmons walked out of baseball.

It's nice to recall, however, that in February of 1953, the embittered Simmons was voted into the Hall of Fame along with Dizzy Dean. When they went to tell him, they found him at Hialeah Race Track.

"Are you sure?" Simmons asked. "Boy, this has been a good day. I've had four winners, too."

Then, looking out over the infield with misty eyes, old "Bucketfoot Al" sighed:

"I had begun to think they had forgotten me."

The Philadelphia Athletics are gone now, and so is Simmons. But he knew that even if the A's forgot him, the fans didn't.

L.A. on Crest of Win Streak, Meets Mounties

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels seek their seventh straight win tonight in a series opener against the Vancouver Mounties at Wrigley field.

The Angels took the day off Monday after sweeping a four-game series from Seattle and assuming first place in the Pacific Coast League. Lefthander George Piktuzis 0-1 goes for the Angels tonight against Fred Besana 0-2 of the cellar-dwelling Mounties.

Meanwhile, the Hollywood Stars open against Sacramento. Curt Raydon 4-2 tosses for Hollywood in the series opener at Sacramento to while Cloy Boyer 3-2 pitches for the second-place Scions.

In a battle for third place, the San Diego Padres play host to the Seattle Rainiers. Dick Mesa 2-5 of San Diego faces Seattle's Elmer Singleton 6-3 on the mound.

Giardello to Get Another Chance Says Promoter

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Giardello of Philadelphia, former top middleweight contender, was invited back to St. Nicholas Arena today for another TV fight on July 2, although he was upset by Charley Cotton of Toledo, Ohio, for the second time in three weeks Monday night.

Promoter Teddy Brenner said, "I'm offering Giardello a fight with Tony Baldoni on July 2. I want him back because last night's split decision was unpopular and because he showed such improvement. I know he's going places again."

Lanky Cotton, who had spoiled "bad boy" Giardello's comeback campaign by winning a unanimous decision over him at St. Nick's on May 7, wound up with the same ring Monday night.

Many of the 1,503 fans booed the decision.

Home Team Has Promotion Task

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A new method of dividing up gate receipts went into effect in the Pacific Coast League today, giving the home teams an added responsibility of getting the fans to turn out.

Under the new arrangement adopted by the league yesterday, the visiting club will get 25 cents per admission for each ticket costing 75 cents or more and 10 cents per admission on each one less than 75 cents.

Under the old system, the home club took 60 per cent of the net gate and the visitors got 40 per cent.

Sproule Says Players Not Declared Out

Record Different Than Reported Says U of C President

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Athletes suspected of receiving under-the-table payments in the UCLA football scandal will not be forced to prove their innocence, according to President Robert G. Sproule of the University of California.

Sproule, who heads both the Berkeley and Los Angeles campuses of the university, met with leaders of the two schools over the weekend to "consider the report of action taken by the Pacific Coast Conference at . . . Victoria, B.C."

He said the record "differs . . . from accounts that have appeared in the daily newspapers, namely, in relation to the disqualification of athletes."

REPORTS COMING OUT of the recent conference of PCC directors indicated all of UCLA's football players who accepted payments in excess of the $75 permitted under conference rules would lose a year's eligibility.

The reports further indicated the suspected players would be judged guilty unless they could prove their innocence.

"The action of the conference does not lay upon the individual athlete the responsibility of proving that he has not accepted unauthorized payments," Sproule said. "Clearance by his institution will permit him to compete."

Sproule also reported that, contrary to earlier reports, the loss of eligibility applied only to football.

UCLA was socked with the heaviest penalties ever assessed by the PCC for rules violations. In addition to the potential loss of eligibility of most of its grid stars, the university was "fined" $95,000 in revenues from future games and banned from the Rose Bowl for three years.

SPOULE CALLED for a meeting "at the earliest possible date" of conference presidents for consideration of questions raised by the present situation.

He said that Cal and UCLA leaders "unanimously agreed . . . that neither the University of California nor UCLA should withdraw from the Pacific Coast Conference."

At the meeting last weekend were Chancellor Raymond B. Allen, Prof. Joseph Kaplan and Wilber John, representing UCLA and Chancellor Clark Kerr, Prof. Glenn T. Seaborg and Gregory F. Englehard, representing California.

Angels Reject Bid for Bilko

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Los Angeles baseball fans can rest assured that homerun swatter Steve Bilko isn't taking his .411 batting average anywhere.

President John Holland of the Los Angeles club said he had turned down a proposal by Jerry Donovan, president of the San Francisco Seals, who offered $25,000 cash for Bilko, shortstop Ritchie Myers and pitcher Marino Pieretti.

"I wouldn't sell Bilko for anything," Holland said.

Abbott, Costello in Hall of Fame

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Comedians Bud Abbott and Lou Costello have received word that they have been named to baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., for their historic comedy routine, "Who's on First."

It was the first time in the history of baseball's historic shrine that two persons who never performed on a diamond were named for the honor.

CONLEY'S COMEBACK GOOD NEWS FOR BRAVES AS THEY INCREASE LEAD

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Gene Conley passed his big test, which means the Braves are ready today for the even bigger test of presenting Milwaukee with its first pennant.

The 6-foot, 8-inch right-hander, who came off the disabled list Friday, spun six strong innings in relief Monday night to score his first victory as the Braves retained first place with a 10-3 conquest of the St. Louis Cardinals. Conley yielded eight hits but wasn't touched for a run until the ninth in giving the Braves their third straight win.

Hank Aaron led the Braves' 14-hit attack with four hits while Bobby Thomson and Del Crandall homered. Aaron now has batted .537 in the Braves' last 10 games and has his season's average up to .347.

BUT CONLEY'S PERFORMANCE was the big story because the towering side-wheeler is recognized as the pitcher who can control the powerful Brooklyn Dodgers. Big Gene had an 11-5 record in early July last year before he came down with a lame shoulder.

He suffered a recurrence of the ailment in spring training and at one time was feared lost for the season.

The amazing Pittsburgh Pirates ran their winning streak to four games and took a 1 1/2-game hold on third place with a 3-2 decision over the Dodgers. A crowd of 32,221 — largest for a night game at Forbes Field in six years — was delighted as Bob Friend pitched a two-hitter and Dale Long ran his record homer streak to eight in eight games.

Friend now has beaten the Dodgers three times this season, has won five straight games and has an 8-2 record. He leads the majors in victories. Long, given a $2,500 raise only a few hours before Monday night's game, has a 2.414 average and has hit in nine.

ROBIN ROBERTS made one of his rare relief appearances to help Harvey Haddix win his first game for Philadelphia as the Phillies downed the New York Giants, 5-2. Roberts choked off a Giant rally in the eighth after two hits by Willie Jones and triples by Elmer Valo and Richie Ashburn paced the Phillies to their early lead.

Bob Rush, who's scored three of the Chicago Cubs' nine triumphs this year, pitched a three-hitter to beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 4-1.

In the American League, the New York Yankees opened up a 4 1/2-game lead when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 2-0, behind Whitey Ford's five-hitter. It was Ford's seventh victory and he reduced his earned run average to 1.01. Frank Sullivan's wild pitch and two of three errors by rookie shortstop Don Buddin figured in the Yankee scoring.

FORMER TEAMMATE Steve Gromek pitched a six-hitter to give the Detroit Tigers a 3-2 decision over the second place Cleveland Indians. The first three Cleveland batters hit safely against Gromek but he yielded only three more blows the rest of the way. Ray Boone had a homer and two singles as the Tigers handed knockout king Herb Score his fourth loss.

Enos Slaughter's two-run ninth inning homer enabled the Kansas City Athletics to come from behind and beat the Chicago White Sox, 6-4, and Chuck Diering singled home pitcher Mike Fournieles, who had doubled, in the 10th to provide the Baltimore Orioles with a 6-5 triumph over the Washington Senators in the other AL games.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE NEW Real Estate office building of Harold Hicks has been started at 1345 North Palm Canyon Drive, with completion date set for September 1. The present office was built in 1928 by Alvah Hicks, and business has been conducted there since that time. Above is artist Robert Lind-skey's sketch of the new building, while below is the groundbreaking ceremony, left to right, Burnham Bigelow, manager; Mildred Lindskey, secretary; Edward Burghard, broker; Arthur Press, builder; Harold Hicks; Paul Aust, broker; Stewart Williams of Williams, Williams and Williams, architects; Kenneth Herman and Ray Baur, brokers. Motorists Throw $7 Million Out of Car Windows Annually

Motorists are throwing some seven million dollars out of their car windows annually — just on roads and streets in the 13 Southland counties.

That's how the Automobile Club of Southern California today described the highway trash problem whose $5 million cleanup-cost in Los Angeles, Orange and Ventura counties alone would be enough to build two and one-half miles of full freeway each year.

As another big tourist season approaches, it's reasonable to expect even more highway trash—and expense — unless Southland motorists make a concerted effort to set a better example, the Club said.

"EXPERIENCE HAS shown that the only real solution lies with the individual. The average motorist feels that he is hardly contributing to the trash problem by throwing out a small wad of tissue paper or a handful of peanut shells, but it is exactly these acts repeated time again that create most of this expensive situation," the Club said.

Motorists can expect stepped-up law enforcement to cope with the trash problem. Recent legislation makes it possible for police to cite trash violators as they do traffic offenders—with fines up to $50 or a jail sentence.

The Club spokesman referred to recent San Francisco cases in which 14 persons were fined $50 each and were also given 20-day suspended jail sentences.

In addition to the expense created by "litterbugs," the Club cited the dangers that could be created by broken glass or nails on roads and the fire hazards resulting from throwing lighted cigarettes out of the window.

THE TRASH PROBLEM can be solved economically and with a minimum of law enforcement, the Club said—if motorists, service station owners and sand truckers cooperate in a program that includes these provisions:

1. Carrying a litter bag in vehicles and using them.
2. Covering all open vehicles that carry materials which can be blown off or fall off.
3. Using available highway trash cans.
4. Disposing of trash in service station receptacles when on a trip away from home or when visibility makes it dangerous to get out of a vehicle and use highway trash cans.
5. Avoiding the use of highway trash cans for household rubbish.

Mary Pickford Nicked by Bullet in Gun Accident

HOLLYWOOD actress Mary Pickford, America's sweetheart in the days of silent films, today calmly disclosed she narrowly escaped death when a bullet from an accidentally discharged pistol grazed her forehead after a gay Hollywood party.

Miss Pickford said the incident occurred Saturday night when she and her husband, producer Buddy Rogers, were accompanied to their fashionable home by Capt. Horace Brown and his wife, Marion Davies, after attending the formal opening of Tony Duquette's new decorator shop.

The actress said Brown slipped as he was showing the pistol to Rogers and the weapon accidentally discharged in the driveway outside her home. Brown reportedly was carrying the pistol to guard expensive jewels worn by his wife at the party.

The golden-haired actress said the bullet hit the pavement and ricocheted to her forehead. She said she thought the bullet missed her forehead.

"I didn't feel a thing and thought I wasn't even scratched," Miss Pickford said. "Marion, however, insisted that a doctor look at it."

Dr. Eliot Corday said he treated the actress at her home for a slight abrasion on the forehead.

He's Out to Win Votes in a Walk

MALIBU — If Roy R. C. Sanderson is elected as supervisor in the Fourth District, he can say he "won it in a walk."

Sanderson started an 87 mile walk to meet the voters from here to San Pedro and back Monday. He plans to attend several rallies along the way and says he'll walk the full distance even though a loudspeaker-equipped station wagon will ride alongside him.

Indiana, Idaho Suffer Heavy Flood Losses

Northwest Still Hard Hit; Some Areas Get Relief

By UNITED PRESS
Indianapolis fought surging flood waters today and tried to clean up in time for the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race tomorrow. The Indianapolis floods, following three days of drenching rains, were the worst of a series which poured over midwest farmlands and communities.
Another flood threat brought 168 soldiers to the Nystrom and Port Hill areas of Idaho near the Canadian border. The rampaging Mootenai River threatened to go over dikes in the region.

IN OREGON, the Columbia and Willamette rivers hit their biggest heights of the year at Portland, flooding some lower level docks and plants. They were expected to rise further today.

Rains slackened over much of the sodden midwest, bringing relief to Central Illinois farmers. More than nine inches of rain blocked highways and washed out crops in the fertile region before creeks began falling back into their banks.

THE FLOODING WATERS of Illinois creeks took two young lives. Patricia Ann Rankin, 14, drowned near Middletown Monday night, and Jerry Lowe, 12, a farm boy, drowned in a rain-swollen stream close to his home near Rossville. His body was recovered today.

There was no immediate relief in sight at Indianapolis, where the worst flood in 43 years drove 1500 families from their homes.

Police Reserve Praised by Chief for 'Expert' Job

Members of the Palm Springs Police Reserve today were commended by Chief of Police August G. Kettmann for their "alert, expert and diplomatic handling of traffic and persons during the Bob Hope premiere of 'That Certain Feeling' at the Plaza Theater."

Chief Kettmann sent the letter to the members of the Reserve through Captain Leonard Wolf. Fourteen members helped with the event.

This is the last major assignment of the reserve for the season, but Kettmann, said that the Reserve would help during the summer months.
"The formation of the Police Reserve in this community has helped immeasurably in relieving the regular officers of the department from routine traffic problems and allowing them to continue with their regular assignments," added Kettmann, "and they are to be commended for the great work that they are doing."

Teacher Resigns After Question on Gov't Questioned

GRAHAM, N.C. (AP) — The City Council studied today the "scholastic intent" of a question asked high school students in a United States history examination.

The multiple-choice question asked:
"The Graham City Council is largely composed of: A. Idiots; B. Ignoramuses; C. Ne'er-do-wells; D. You call it; you got it."

District Principal N. G. Bryan reported that Wilton Hawkins, history mathematics teacher, included the "unusual" question at a final 11th grade history examination last Friday.

Bryan said he learned of the question yesterday and Hawkins, when confronted with the report, tendered his verbal resignation.

"I don't know what Mr. Hawkins was thinking about to use such a question in a high school class," Bryan said. "I regret this matter and I do not approve of it."

Hawkins, who lives in nearby Alamance, has taught at the Graham High School for five years. His brother, J. H. Hawkins, is a Graham city councilman.

Assembly Hears Lee Backstrand

Assemblyman Lee Backstrand, candidate for re-election, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly last night at the American Legion hall, with a good crowd in attendance.

He told of activities of the State Legislature, the budget for this year, and the state highway program.

Backstrand was introduced by Supervisor George Berkey, who himself is a candidate for re-election.

Both guests urged the persons present to vote themselves, and to conduct a vigorous "Get Out the Vote" campaign.

This was the last meeting of the group before the June 5 primary election. All Republican candidates have appeared as guest speakers during the past few months. Arnold Rumwell is president.

Revise Plans for Hospital to Stay Within Funds

Revision in plans of the proposed new wing of Desert Hospital was authorized by the board of directors yesterday, in an effort to bring the new addition within the funds approved by voters at a special bond election.

The first call for bids resulted in rejection by the directors of all submitted figures, as they were in excess of funds allotted.

Architects are now at work on the plan revision, which calls for elimination of some rooms and thereby bed space.

The present schedule has the call for bids set for July 15, with construction to start September 4. It is anticipated that the revised funds will permit bids to come within the budgeted monies, according to Robert Henwood, hospital administrator.

IMBIBING MADE EASY - AUTOMATION BECOMES AN AID TO TIRED DRINKERS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Tired of lifting up those heavy whisky bottles? Lack strength to pull out the corks? Just can't seem to stop pouring? Then try the latest labor-saving device, the automatic bar.

All you have to do with this $4000 gadget is set the dial to the highball of your choice, press a button and extend your hand for the filled and chilled glass. It takes three seconds.

The machine won't lift the glass to your lips. You have to do that yourself.

The machine was invented by Huntly Briggs, assistant advertising manager of General Controls Company. It will be used at conventions and the like to show the effectiveness of the firm's automatic controls.

It took Briggs six months to build the machine. The firm claims a midwestern executive has offered $10,000 for it and Friggs thinks maybe there are enough Texas millionaires around to establish a steady market. The cost probably could be cut in half if the machine went into regular production.

The automatic bar weighs 200 pounds, is 44 inches high, 36 inches wide and 22 inches deep. At one side is a magazine containing ice cubes and a small sink. Along the top are racks holding five bottles upside down, one of bourbon, one of Scotch and three of mixer, water, plain soda and sweet soda. A spout from each leads to a single spigot.

Suppose you're gasping with thirst and want a refreshment. Here's what you do:

Place an eight-ounce glass under the ice cube magazine and press it against a lever. Two ice cubes will fall into the glass.

Then put the glass under the liquor spigot. Turn a control wheel to choose your liquor and your mix in the amounts you want of each. Then press a button. But don't try to fill your glass more than half full of whisky. That makes the machine sulk. A red light goes on and it won't pour.

But if you're not greedy, a golden stream pours into your glass. Now try telling your troubles to an automatic bar.

More than 766,000 persons were injured in weekend traffic accidents last year.

In 1956...as in 1906 really see Everything with TANNER GRAY LINE

The 1906 visitor to the Southwest went sightseeing in a handsome coach, behind a team of matched show horses. Today, the vehicle may be a sleek limousine with liveried chauffeur, a smart U-Drive car for personal sightseeing, or a luxury coach on a guided tour.

But the company which pioneered these services remains the same. The original Tanner Livery Company, established in 1906 by C. C. Tanner, is in its Golden Anniversary year under continuous family operation. Tanner Gray Line Motor Tours, in 1956, is the world's largest sightseeing organization, offering the tourist a complete transportation service.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY Celebrating... 50 YEARS OF TOURIST SERVICE
1906 1956

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tanner, founders of the company, go for a drive with a handsome team. This type of vehicle was the original "U-Drive" in 1906.

Snappy 1910 Cadillac limousine, featuring the first Fleetwood body, was the pride of the Tanner Livery service of that year, with uniformed chauffeur.

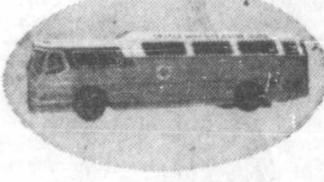

Off on a guided tour in 1914, a gay party might visit orange groves, beaches, or perhaps Mt. Lowe, for a magnificent view from the observatory.

Smart Avis Rent-A-Car takes the modern tourist on business or sightseeing trips. Tanner Gray Line, licensee, offers Plymouths, all popular makes, late models.

Limousines in 1956 offer the same outstanding service to visitor or resident, for business, social, sightseeing, weddings, premieres, parties, with liveried chauffeur.

Latest word in sightseeing coaches are these newest additions to Tanner Gray Line fleet, bound for Disneyland, homes of stars, inside movie studios, hundreds of other tours.

At leading hotels, Tanner offices, airports... 24 hours a day
